The Class Prophecy

It is now 1965 at a class reunion. The former Elk Mound Seniors of 1955 arrive and we believed you would be interested to know how they fared on the weary road of life.

Joe Brice - Doctor of Medicine arrives in his pink Graham which goes quite well with his bright red shirt and green tie.

Jerry Zimmerman - Is now the Jockey at Donna's horse ranch in Kentucky. The Orange and Black are going to try their luck at the Irish Sweepstake.

Jack Hase - The Dean of Men at Podunk U. is getting tired of men and is in the process of exchanging jobs with the Dean of Women.

Donna Jenson - Has ridden over on the horse that won the 1964 Arlington Sweepstake, she now uses it for a work horse, as she owns stables of them.

Arlene Scharlau - Center and Captain of the Girls Basketball team she formed, "The World Glob-Trotters."

Emily Meyer - Is now editor of the "New York Times." She managed to grab a few moments between press conferences to attend our reunion.

Elizabeth Fjelstad - Is a Dietition Co. President which boasts they can make you lose a pound a week.

David Cartwright - Arrived on a flat car on the Soo Line Railroad. Equiped with a tin cup and a suitcase.

Irene McIvor - Has arrived from New York where she is on the staff of Dioi's fashion designs. Apparently they are working on the new B line.

Eunice Jain - Is here with her portable chemistry lab. Already having discovered how to make diamonds, she is now beginning research on gold.

June Mittelstadt - Has come along with several little _____ which are a very healthy blonde headed group.

Barb Flint - Arrives in a brand new English Sport car that she won in a raffle, she is Vice President of an A-13-c Finance Company.

Shirley Stelter - Worlds Champion Lady Weight Lifter who also, fixes cars, trains dogs, and does crossword puzzles.

Delores Smith - Arrived from Elk Mound High School where she has been teaching and piling history on Mr. Stiehls children.

Ronald Johnson - Arrives just as the others are leaving, he decided early in life he would be a millionaire and not work.

Well, 21 of us entered Elk Mound High School last fall as Juniors. We had four new members. They are Paul Vollendorf, Larry Phillips, Joanne Grabowinski, and Lon Fisher. Richard Broaddus and Lon Fisher withdrew leaving, at the present, 19 members.

Our Class Advisor is Mr. V. Cartwright.
President- Jim Eisenhuth

Lon Fisher was orignally class president but since he withdrew in a few weeks a new president was elected.

The Juniors are quite active in Forensics, Basketball and many other Sports. The Juniors gave a party in October and had a good turn out, even though everybody didn't get out and dance, they took part in the rest of the entertainment that we had. We received our class rings in November. We sold pop and candy at the basketball games and cleared a pretty good sum of money from that. We sold some Christmas cards, but if the weather would have been better maybe some of the kids would have been better at selling them as they all said.

Our Junior-Senior Prom will be held on May 21.

Prom King- Jim Eisenhuth
Prom Queen- Janice Kaanta

Junior-Senior Prom

Soft music and low lights were the setting for our prom. The gym was decorated in mint green and pink. The atmosphere was one in which we could happily close another year of school.

At the strike of eleven the royal procession started. Everyone waited impatiently for things to get under way. Finally the time came. Our queen and king, Janice Kaanta and Jim Eienhuth, walked down the aisle. Followed by vice queen and king, Delores Smith and Ronald Johnson.

After the cornation the royalty danced to the "Melody of Love", which was the prom theme. The music was furnished by Guy Woodford.

Sophomore Class

In September of 1954, 31 students entered Elk Mound High School as Sophmores. We were all anxious to renew our friendship and meet many new kids. We lost three kids over our summer vacation, but we also gained three. They are Al Lampien, Evelyn Miles and Marlene Martinson. But we lost two during the year, they were Glen Thompson and Marlene Martinson. We elected class officers at our first class meeting. They are as follows:

President- Dave Brice
Vice President- Marlene Martinson
Secretary- Arlene Goetz
Treasurer- Marlys Sneen

We, Sophmores, have 13 kids in the Sr. Band and 15 kids in the Mixed Chorus. Carole Parker, Marlys Sneen, Dave Brice, Kenny Jenson, Ronnie Mousel, and Arlene Goetz are on the Moundscope Staff. Kenny Jenson and Marlys Sneen are representing our class on the Student Council. Kenny is Treasurer and Marlys is Secretary on the Council. Shirley Schrantz, Evelyn Miles, Dave Brice and Daryl Spagnoletti help in the kitchen this year.

Cheerleaders were elected October 29. Marlys Sneen and Carole Parker were elected as A-Team Cheerleaders. The teams were chosen in early November. We have 5 kids on the B-Team, they are, Daryl Spagnoletti, Kenny Jenson, Tom Ausman, Wayne Johnson and Julian Rhude. Dave Brice and Ronnie Mousel are on the first five of the A-Team. Congradulations Boys! We are all very happy with the successful basketball season we had this year.

The magazine drive started October 4th, Arlene Goetz was top salesman.

To welcome the Freshman into our high school we had a hayride for them on November 17. A Skating Party was held Jan. 29. Our class hopes to sponsor movies about every other week in the gym, starting March 10th, open to the public.

We feel we have learned a lot this year and find ourselves very capable of working together. We have made many new friends and have enjoyed school very much as Sophmores.

They were Charleen Wiseman, James Fallon, and Ronald Schumacher. This left Twenty Seven members in our class, which is our present enrollment.

Our class advisor is Miss. Erlandson, our English teacher.

Our class Officers are as follows:
President- James Smith
Vice President- Bonnie Jensen

Nine students from the Freshman class participated in Forensics, they all did very well. They were Denis Christopherson, Gari Spagnoletti, Judy Lee, Lynne Davenport, Bonnie Jensen, Kay Ausman, Janet Stahlbush, Carolyn Gray, and Susan Broaddus.

The Freshman Class has sponsored a few parties. The first party being a Sadie Hawkins Party, with the girls asking the boys. Every body had a lot of fun. We have also enjoyed attending parties given by the other classes.
